

Dates for your Diary

February half term Monday 19th - Friday 23rd February.

We will be open for holiday club as usual however due to work being undertaken at St Josephs and St Theresa's in Burntwood we will be based at St Thomas More in Great Wyrley for this holiday only.

Learning at Home

This month there is Valentine's Day, Shrove Tuesday and Chinese New Year to celebrate all in the same week.

For Valentine's Day why not make some lovely Heart Cookies.

Visit:

<https://www.bakingmad.com/recipe/valentine-hearts> for the recipe.

For Shrove Tuesday why not get active and play some games using cardboard pancakes.

You could make a whole stack of them and write numbers on one side then place them face down and try to find matching numbers or have a competition to see who can make the tallest tower of pancakes without them falling down or why not make a cardboard frying pan and have a pancake flip competition and see who can flip and catch the pancake the most.

For Chinese New Year why not try writing some Chinese symbols or make yourself some spring rolls you will need: filo pastry, stir fry veg, egg and soy sauce. What to do: Put the veg in a bowl and splash some soy sauce over the top then mix it in. Take a sheet of filo and line some of the veg along the bottom leaving an edge at the bottom and along the sides then fold in the sides and roll from the bottom all the way to the top. Use some beaten egg to seal the edges, brush the top with some of the egg wash then bake.

Have fun!
